Dublin City Council

“This City Council acknowledges the 30th anniversary of the death of 10 Irishmen on hunger strike in 1981. This event acted as a catalyst for the Peace Process in the 1990’s and this Council pays tribute to all those from all traditions who have worked so hard to ensure peace in our county in the years since this event”.

Dublin City Council

“That this Council supports the Justice for Magdalenes (JFM), survivor advocacy group’s calling on the Irish state to offer a formal state apology for all survivors of the Magdalene laundries and that the Government immediately establishes a statutory inquiry into these abuses. To do otherwise is to cause additional pain and suffering to the women and girls thereby bringing further shame on our nation. The women and their children deserve justice now”.
