Planning Section

Planning and Development Acts, 2000 to 2002

South Tipperary County Council, pursuant to Section 247 of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, holds consultations with interested parties who may wish to make a planning application for a development in the Council's functional area.

South Tipperary County Council as Planning Authority will keep a record of any such consultations, which will be a matter of public record. Consultations will be by appointment only and will be held, generally, on Wednesdays between the hours of 9.00am and 1.00pm at the Planning Office, Ground Floor, Áras an Chontae, Clonmel, Co. Tipperary.

Interested parties who wish to arrange a consultation under Section 247 of the above Act should contact the Planning Section of the Council as detailed hereunder.

The carrying out of such consultations shall not prejudice the performance by the Planning Authority of any other of its functions under the above Act, or any Regulations made under the above Act, and cannot be relied upon in the formal planning process or in legal proceedings.
